

Regents Park Community College – Year 9 Sociology Progress Pathways
Low Attaining Year 9	Middle Attaining Year 9	High Attaining Year 9
I can demonstrate I have fragments of basic knowledge and understanding of theories, concepts, evidence and methods relevant to a topic. I sometimes use specialist terms. I can occasionally apply relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods to sociological themes and issues. I try to show a little analysis of relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods. My writing will not always be well constructed and I only give a little if any evidence to support my views I may write a simple conclusion.	I demonstrate limited evidence of knowledge and understanding of theories, concepts, evidence and methods relevant to a topic. I use a limited range of specialist terms appropriately. I can apply relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods to sociology themes and issues, but this is limited. I try to analyse and evaluate relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods but not in any detail. In my writing I try to develop an argument, but this can sometimes be inconsistent.	I demonstrate sound evidence of knowledge and understanding of theories, concepts, evidence and methods relevant to a topic I can apply a range of specialist terms appropriately. I can apply relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods, but there may be some inaccuracies or omissions in my work. I will give sound evidence of analysis and evaluation of relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods. In my writing I will develop a logical argument, but my judgements and conclusions may not yet be fully accurate and they may lack appropriate development

Regents Park Community College – Year 10 Sociology Progress Pathways
Low Attaining Year 10	Middle Attaining Year 10	High Attaining Year 10
I demonstrate limited evidence of knowledge and understanding of theories, concepts, evidence and methods relevant to a topic. I use a limited range of specialist terms appropriately. I apply relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods to sociology themes and issues, but this is limited. I try to analyse and evaluate relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods but not in any detail. In my writing I try to develop an argument, but this can sometimes be inconsistent.	I demonstrate sound evidence of knowledge and understanding of theories, concepts, evidence and methods relevant to a topic I can appropriately apply a good range of specialist terms. I can apply relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods, but there may be some inaccuracies or omissions in my work. I will give sound evidence of analysis and evaluation of relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods. In my writing I will develop a logical argument, but my judgements and conclusions may not yet be fully accurate and they may lack appropriate development	I am developing a good, and sometimes detailed, knowledge and understanding of relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods relevant to a topic I can apply a wide range of specialist terms with some precision. I can apply relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods to sociology themes and issues but there may be occasional inaccuracies or omissions in my work. I am developing an ability to critically analyse and evaluate relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods. In my writing, I construct arguments with supported judgements and evidence based conclusions.

Regents Park Community College – Year 11 Sociology Progress Pathways
Low Attaining Year 11	Middle Attaining Year 11	High Attaining Year 11
I demonstrate an improving but limited evidence of knowledge and understanding of theories, concepts, evidence and methods relevant to a topic. I use a limited range of specialist terms appropriately. In exam answers, I sometimes apply relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods to sociology themes and issues, but this is limited. I try to analyse and evaluate relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods but not in any detail. In my writing I try to develop an argument which is relevant to the exam question, but this can sometimes be inconsistent and unclear.	I demonstrate good evidence of knowledge and understanding of theories, concepts, evidence and methods relevant to a topic I can apply a good range of specialist terms appropriately. In exam answers, I can apply relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods, but there may be some inaccuracies or omissions in my work. I will give good evidence of analysis and evaluation of relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods. In my writing I will develop a logical argument which is relevant to the exam question, but my judgements and conclusions may not yet be fully accurate and they may lack appropriate development	I have a detailed knowledge and understanding of relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods relevant to a topic. I use a wide range of specialist terms with precision. In exam answers, I make sustained applications of relevant theories, concepts, evidence and methods to the issues raised by exam questions. Inaccuracies or omissions in my work are rare. My critical analysis and evaluation of relevant theories, concepts, evidence and method is developed. In my writing, my arguments are focused on the exam question and well-constructed. I include supported judgements and evidence-based conclusions.